CONSTITUTION.

PREAMBLE.

We, Officers and Honorably Discharged Officers of the Army, Navy and Marine Corps of the United States, whose names are hereunto annexed,—having aided in maintaining the honor, integrity and supremacy of the National Government, at a critical period of its history; and holding in remembrance the sacrifices in common made, and the triumphs together shared, in the support of this sacred duty,—do unite in order to ordain and establish a permanent Association for the purpose and objects hereinafter set forth, and to this end, pledge our honor, as officers and gentlemen, to be governed by the following Constitution and By-Laws.

ARTICLE I.

TITLE.

This Institution shall be known by the name, style and title of The Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States.

ARTICLE II.

PRINCIPLES.

This Order acknowledges as its fundamental principles—

1st. A firm belief and trust in Almighty God; extolling Him under whose beneficent guidance the sovereignty and integrity of the Union have been maintained, the honor of the Flag vindicated, and the blessing of Civil Liberty secured, established and enlarged.

2d. True allegiance to the United States of America, based upon a paramount respect for and fidelity to the National Constitution and Laws, manifested by the discountenancing of whatever may tend to weaken loyalty, incite to insurrection, treason or rebellion, or in any manner to impair the efficiency and permanency of our Free Institutions.

ARTICLE III.

OBJECTS.

The Objects of this Order shall be, to cherish the memories and associations of the war waged in defence of the unity and indivisibility of the Republic; to strengthen the ties of fraternal fellowship and sympathy formed from companionship-in-arms; to advance the best interests of the soldiers and sailors of the United States, especially of those associated as members of this Order, and to extend all possible relief to their widows and children; to foster the cultivation of Military and Naval Science; to enforce unqualified allegiance to the General Government; to protect the rights and liberties of American citizenship, and to maintain National Honor, Union and Independence.

ARTICLE IV.

ORGANIZATION.

The several constituted bodies of this Order shall be designated as Commanderies, and shall consist of—

1st. State Commanderies, to be known as "The Commandery of the State of_____."

2d. A National Commandery, to be known as "The Commandery-in-chief."

ARTICLE V.

MEMBERS.

The Members, or Companions, of this Order shall be of three (3) Classes:—

First (1st) Class: Commissioned Officers of the United States Army, Navy or Marine Corps, Regular or Volunteer, including Officers of assimilated rank by appointment of the Secretary of War or Navy, who have been actually engaged in the suppression of the Rebellion, whether as Commissioned officers, Non-commissioned officers, Warrant officers, or Enlisted men.

The eldest male lineal descendants, according to the rules of primogeniture, of deceased Companions of the First (1st) Class, upon attaining the age of twenty-one years; and if there are no descendants, male or female, then the male heirs of such deceased Companions in the collateral branches of their families in the order of genealogical succession according to the rules of primogeniture: Provided however, That in cases of representation through females the eldest branches shall be preferred to the younger, and intervening female lives through whom the inheritances would be derived shall be disregarded; that any person eligible for membership by inheritance, if he have no descendants male or female living may, by writing filed, waive and renounce his right in favor of the next entitled person; and that in case one already a Companion of the Order is next in the line of inheritance from a deceased Companion, the eligibility of membership in right of such deceased Companion shall devolve upon the person next entitled other than such living Companion or his descendants.

The eldest male lineal descendants, according to the rules of primogeniture, of Officers who have been killed in battle or died while in the service of the National Government during the actual existence of the Rebellion, and who would have been eligible for membership in the Order had they survived.

Second (2d) Class: The eldest sons of living Companions of the First (1st) Class, provided they be twenty-one (21) years of age.

Upon the death of the Companion of the First (1st) Class through whom eligibility of membership is derived, a Companion of the Second (2d) Class shall become a Companion of the First (1st) Class.

Third (3d) Class: Gentlemen in civil life, who, during the Rebellion, have been specially distinguished for conspicuous and consistent loyalty to the National Government, and who have been active and eminent in maintaining the supremacy of the same.

ARTICLE VI.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

SECTION 1.—Every application for membership shall be made in writing, signed by the applicant, who shall be recommended in writing by three (3) Companions of the Commandery to which he shall apply, who shall vouch for the candidate's eligibility. The application shall be referred by the Commander to a Committee of Investigation, consisting of three (3) Companions of the Order, none of whom shall be of the recommending Companions. If the applicant be a candidate for the First (1st) Class, the Committee shall ascertain the date of his appointment or muster into the United States service, and if discharged, the date of the same, and the reasons therefor. In all cases, they shall make a careful examination of his standing and moral character, and shall report in writing at the next stated meeting of the Commandery. After the reading of the report, the Commander shall formally request any Companion of the Order who has any objection to the report, or reasons against the election of the candidate, to then state the same if he so desire. Upon the adoption of the report,—the candidate must be balloted for if the report be unfavorable,—every Companion of the Order present, shall, unless excused by a vote of the Commandery, deposit one (1) ballot for or against the candidate. If he be a candidate for the First (1st) or Second (2d) Class, and not more than two (2) black balls be deposited against him, he shall be declared duly elected; but if three (3) or more black balls be deposited against him, he shall be rejected and so declared. If he be a candidate for the Third (3d) Class, and one (1) black ball be deposited against him, he shall be rejected and so declared.

SEC. 2.—An application for membership may be withdrawn before report thereon; or after report and before ballot, if the report be favorable.

SEC. 3.—A Companion-elect of the First (1st), Second (2d) or Third (3d) Class, before being admitted to the privileges of membership, shall subscribe to the Constitution and By-Laws of the Order; pay an admission fee of at least twenty-five dollars ($25.00) which shall entitle him, during membership, to a Diploma, Badge and Ribbon; be presented at one of the meetings of the Commandery, and there make the requisite declaration. But if he shall neglect or refuse to comply with these conditions for the period of six (6) months, unless prevented by sickness or other unavoidable occurrence, his election may be declared null and void:—

Provided, That Companions-elect of the Order who may be stationed or who may reside at a distance too great to be present at the stated meeting of their Commandery next succeeding their election, and who are thus unavoidably prevented from complying in full with the above requirements, may, in lieu thereof, make in writing the requisite declaration of membership.

SEC. 4.—If a candidate for membership be rejected, he shall be forever after ineligible for proposal in any other Commandery of the Order, and not eligible in that in which he was rejected, until a period of one (1) year shall have elapsed from the date of his rejection; after which, in the event of the rejected candidate applying for membership, he shall comply in all particulars with the forms hereinbefore prescribed; and, to be elected, must, when balloted for, be approved unanimously.

SEC. 5.—When the fact of the ineligibility of any candidate for membership of the Order shall be certified to before the Council of any Commandery, by a Committee of Investigation duly appointed, it shall be duly and properly recorded, and a copy of such record shall be forwarded, through the proper channel, for the information and guidance of the several Commanderies.

ARTICLE VII.

MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1.—The right of a member to resign, or to withdraw from the Commandery for any stated period of time, on application made as hereinafter directed, shall be given at any stated meeting, two-thirds (⅔) concurring in the same; and this, with the understanding, that, during such time, the Companion withdrawing shall not enjoy the rights and privileges of other members.

In case of the proposed withdrawal or resignation of a member, before the same shall be allowed or accepted, he shall return to the Commandery of which he is a member, his Diploma, Badge and Ribbon of the Order.

SEC. 2.—All applications for permission to withdraw or resign from the Commandery, shall be made in writing and accompanied by a certificate from the Recorder that all dues to the Order have been satisfied. But no member shall be permitted to withdraw or resign while charges are pending against him.

SEC. 3.—Membership shall be forfeited only for a violation of any of the obligations taken on entering the Order, or for other conduct unbecoming a gentleman and inconsistent with that of a man of honor. In such cases the Diploma, Badge and Ribbon, and all other property belonging to the individual as connected with this Order, shall be returned to the Commandery of which he is a member.

SEC. 4.—Commissioned officers of the Regular Army, Navy or Marine Corps, members of any Commandery, upon being ordered to a station where there is a Commandery with which they desire to affiliate, shall be entitled to a temporary transfer thereto, upon written application to their Commander, accompanied by a certificate from the Recorder that all dues to their Commandery have been satisfied; and during their absence they shall not be liable for dues to their Commandery.

Companions in civil life, changing their permanent residence to a place within the jurisdiction of any other Commandery, may in like manner receive a transfer.

In no case shall a Companion be exempt from his obligations to his Commandery solely on account of absence therefrom.

SEC. 5.—In case of the death of a Companion, his heirs shall be entitled to retain possession of his Diploma, Badge and Ribbon.

ARTICLE VIII.

IMPEACHMENT OF MEMBERS.

SECTION 1.—If the conduct or character of any Companion of this Order shall be impeached, the accusing member shall prefer his charge in writing to the Council, who shall notify the accused of the same; and if, after a due investigation, the Council consider the charge to be sustained, they shall report the case, with their decision, to the Commandery, notifying the accused of the time when the report is to be made. If the accused member shall fail to come forward and exculpate himself, he may be expelled by a vote of two-thirds (⅔) of the members of the Commandery present. But no vote for the reprimand, suspension or expulsion of a Companion, shall be taken except at a stated meeting.
